REPEATS PHOENIX EXPERIMENT HERE

Green Is Alleged to Make a Practice of Pulling From Cars to Get Damages From Companies.

Charles Green fell off a Mexico car Thursday evening on San Antonio street. He was rushed to the emergency hospital at the police station, where he was examined by physicians and was said to have been suffering from concussion of the brain. He was taken to Hotel Dixie, where he apparently remained unconscious until Friday afternoon, when he partially recovered.

On October 15 the Electric Railway company received a letter from the Phoenix Street Railway company saying that a man giving the name of Hyman Greenberg had an accident in Phoenix by falling from a street car. The letter closed by asking that if a person of his description had an accident here a wife should be sent to the Phoenix company. Green answered the description given and was suspected of being the same man.

Monday, claim agent Alvin Dixon, general superintendent H. R. Potter and chief detective Jesse Starnel went to the hospital. Dixon obtained a written statement from the man saying that he had never been in a street car or railroad accident. Detective Starnel was called to witness the statement. He then confronted Green with the Phoenix incident and gave him a mild third degree of cross questions which the man declined to answer. Finally the man admitted that he was the same man who had obtained $75 and a ticket from Phoenix to El Paso in settlement of an accident claim similar to the one he had in El Paso. It also developed that he had had similar accidents in Springfield, Ill., and in Los Angeles, the officers say.

He was taken to the police station, where he was docketed as a vagrant. He was fined $200 for vagrancy and was allowed to leave town, which he did Monday night for San Antonio. He told the officers, they say, that he was

Wilson went to the penitentiary for an act to oblige a woman friend of his wife, committed with no intention to defraud. It was this fact that led president Taft to order his release.

MARSHALL ENDS HIS CAMPAIGN

cratic candidate for the vice presidency, wound up his campaign in Montana with speeches at Harlowtown and Roundup, in which he directed criticism at the man who lives for business only and for business success in life.

"My quarrel in this campaign," said governor Marshall, "is not with the business man, big or little, simply because he happens to be a business man. But there is no menace to the country's welfare so disastrous as the business man who will sacrifice every interest of the republic in order to advance his own personal business affairs."

"I know of no character, criminal or otherwise, so petty as that of such a man. For a few thousands or hundreds of thousands of dollars he will sacrifice deliberately the best interests of his fellow country man and the interests of his own offspring in the unreasonable and in the end useless pursuit of dollars."

"Such a man believes that this republic was created to permit him to do business. Also he seems to think that the president, the courts and congress and the state legislatures exist for business instead of for the welfare and happiness of 90,000,000 of people."

PROHIBITIONISTS RECEIVED $20,035.38

Frank J. Gould Contributed $5000 to Union League Club of New York for the Republicans.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 23.—Contributions to the national prohibition party's convention were $20,035.38, according to a report treasurer H. P. Paris has telegraphed from Clinton, Mo., to the clerk of the house of representatives. The expenditures are placed at $18,322.41. No contributions over $1000 were received.

The campaign committee of the Union League club of New York reported it had received contributions for the republican campaign committee to the amount of $18,745. The largest contributor was Frank J. Gould, who gave $5000. Senator Root, Emerson McMullen, G. T. Baker and "A Supporter of the Cause" (not a corporation or office holder), each contributed $1000.

Murdoch Kenrick, treasurer of the National Republican congressional committee of Pennsylvania, reported contributions received at $17,335.84 and disbursements $12,744.23.

The Socialist campaign committee in the 25th Pennsylvania congressional district received contributions of $641.22 and had been promised $2500 by the national Socialist committee.

Blair Lee, Democratic leader in Maryland, sent in two reports. As treasurer of the Democratic auxiliary committee of the state of Maryland, for the campaign committee of the national Democratic committee, he reported as contributions $2376.59, and disbursements of $2,576.50 to the same persons as are reported as contributors.

The report of contribution and expenditures of the Democratic national congressional committee, was forwarded by representative Flood, of Virginia, treasurer. It showed that contributions had been received by Mr. Flood in the sum of $19,925 and by South Trimble, in charge of western headquarters in the sum of $10,468. Mr. Flood reported that he had disbursed $10,523 and Mr. Trimble $6,370.25.

The largest single contributor was shown to have been Thomas P. Ryan, who gave $5,000 to Mr. Flood. None other exceeded $1,000 except a contribution of $2,000 by South Trimble as treasurer of the western headquarters, and $1,000 by the Democratic congressional auxiliary committee of Wash-

INDEPENDENT REPUBLICANS PAY TRIBUTE TO WILSON.

Democratic Nominee for Presidency Asserts Democrats Do Not Want Free Trade.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 23.—Rising in prayer, a tremendous crowd paid tribute to Gov. Woodrow Wilson in the Academy of Music here last night. The meeting was arranged and had under the auspices of the League of Independent Republicans. Gilbert B. Roe, a former law partner and brother-in-law of senator La Follette, and Rudolph Spreckels, of California, organizer of the Wilson National Progressive Republican League, presided. Gov. Wilson with speeches in his favor.

"The only question before the country," said the governor, "is do you trust the men who are now heading the Democratic party. If you believe they are enemies of legitimate business, don't vote for them. If you believe they are wild-eyed reformers who don't know the course of change in this country, don't vote for them. If you believe they are inexperienced tyroes, who don't know right from wrong, don't vote for them. But vote as you believe and as you trust. And if you see any one promise the things which you think can be done, vote that way.

"There is only one way for a panic to occur in the United States, said the governor, "and that is by the small number of men who control industry deliberately creating one. We know the list of these men and we know who will be responsible. The Democrats do not want free trade. The only thing the Democrats are out to do is these special private interests that lie hidden in the protective system. America pays higher wages than free trade England. England pays just as much higher wages than Germany, which is protected."

ROOSEVELT SENDS LETTERS TO PROGRESSIVE LEADERS

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Col. Roosevelt rested today, by his doctor's orders, to save his strength for tomorrow's speech at Madison Square Garden. For half an hour during the forenoon he strolled about the grounds of his home and afterwards spent an hour dictating letters. He was still troubled with soreness in his right side and it probably will be several weeks before he has full use of his right arm.

Col. Roosevelt has partially resumed direction of the campaign and a number of the letters which he sent off today were addressed to Progressive leaders in various states. Although he is eager to get back into the fight, his physicians say he is not strong enough to take up the detailed work of management and probably will be able to do little more than act in an advisory capacity during the remaining week of the campaign.

COLORADO EFFECTS FUSION ON LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 23.—Announcement was made at both Republican and Progressive headquarters that a fusion on the legislative ticket had been effected in a large number of districts. With the expiration yesterday of the time allowed by law for filing changes in tickets, the chances of further fusion are ended. It was also announced that William B. Gobin, of Rocky Ford, has been placed by the Republican ticket as candidate for attorney general. Ben Griffith, originally named for the position, withdrew and was nominated for the same office by the Progressives.

JOHNSON SAYS SENTIMENT IN MAINE IS FOR ROOSEVELT.

Bangor, Maine, Oct. 23.—Governor Hiram Johnson, of California, spoke in 15 cities and towns of Maine before leaving for Connecticut. "I see here a replica of the sentiment in Indiana and Pennsylvania," he said at Waterville. "It is the spirit that is going to return Theodore Roosevelt to the white house and once again give us a real president who will work at all times in the interest of the whole people."

SEEK TO RECALL SENATOR.

San Jose, Calif., Oct. 23.—A petition for the recall of state senator Marshall Black has been filed with the county clerk here. Black was recently indicted on the charge of misappropriation of funds of a building and loan association of which he is chairman of the board of directors.

SENATOR NELSON ENDORSES TAFT
Alexandria, Minn., Oct. 23.—Stating positively that he was in favor of the reelection of the Republican candidate, senator Knute Nelson, a member of Minnesota's candidates special train at Omaha, gave his first positive endorsement of president Taft.

VERY EASY.

"Do you suppose," asked the stranger in Washington, "it would be possible for me to see the president?" "Easiest thing in the world," replied the man who lived there. "Go over to the Union depot and wait around a little while. He will either be starting away or getting back from somewhere."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Papa and mamma and son Willie were crossing the ocean. Willie had done something for which his mother thought he needed correction, but not feeling equal to the occasion she turned to her husband.

"John," she said, "can't you speak to Willie?"

Papa replied in a thin, weak voice, "Now, Willie!—Success Magazine."

ONLY AN H.

Charles Whympier, the painter, visited his daughter at Highgate, and took his eldest daughter to dinner. He was talking about the scenery, when suddenly she said: "I think I get prettier every day, don't you?" "I beg your pardon. What did you say?" "I said I think I get prettier every day." "There was no mistake," said Mr. Whympier, "I was indeed, you get prettier; and no wonder in such fresh air, and—just then she caught her mother's eye, and with the other ladies she left the room, with withering scorn. Then it flashed upon him that he had misunderstood her; she had dropped an h! What she had said was, 'I think Highgate prettier every day.'"

Did you ever stop to think, when the editorial ink was announcing how today was making history, That those wee and helpless things, now our nursery queens and kings, Are the ones who'll have to solve the future's mystery.

SPEAKS FOR HER MOTHER

North Carolina Lady Writes Interesting Letter Relating Her Mother's Experiences.

Taylorville, N. C.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Stella M. Bowman writes as follows: "My mother was weak and run down, and was in bed for nine weeks. She was not able to do any of her work."

Some lady told her about Cardui, the woman's tonic. She decided to try it, and after taking three bottles, was able to do all of her household work.

You may publish this letter if you wish, as it would be a great pleasure for me to know that I have been of help to some suffering woman."

The best way to relieve womanly troubles, pains, headache, backache, etc., is to help nature, by taking Cardui.

Cardui has not only been found of great assistance in relieving the most serious cases of womanly trouble, but has also proven itself an ideal strength-building tonic, for weak, tired, nervous women.

Cardui is successful, because it is composed of ingredients that act effectively on the womanly constitution, and build up health and strength in a natural manner. It is strictly a woman's medicine—prepared exclusively for women.

Fifty years' success in relieving aches and pains of other weak and ailing women, is a good reason to believe that Cardui should help you, too.

ter recently. When asked if he ever intended to expatriate himself and become a subject of King George, whom he has entertained on several occasions, Mr. Carnegie said: "Kings are fakirs, and I am one of the plain people. I wouldn't give up my American citizenship for a round trip ticket to paradise. The United States is the finest land in the world and there is no city that can equal New York."
